

backend folder contains the files responsible of the connection with the backend and database of my app.
it is localized under my www folder.